All developers can have a Builder's Club account. However, some games require payment in order to purchase the Builder's Club membership itself, or for Builders who want more than one account per Builder's Club.

In January 2021, Roblox permanently banned all accounts that were created by Arielle De La Rosa. The company said it was because of her "continued behavior", which included actions such as creating Emily Roe and harassing other users, as mentioned above. Although she had been blocked from Roblox for over a year, they said their original ban for her had been lifted in November 2021. They also stated that she could no longer be unblocked on their platform because of previous harassment reports against other players. The ban was not for her actions, but instead because of the continued harassment she had done.

On October 10, 2021, Roblox replaced their old homepage with a new one. It was also released as part of an update and it was later applied on January 26, 2021. The old design was later removed from the website. A redesign of the website would be released on February 23, 2021. With this new redesign, Roblox added a news feed to the site and went back to the old design before October 2021.

Every year since 2021 Roblox has hosted a "Developer's Conference" at the language center of Carnegie Mellon University. In 2021 and 2021, the conference was held in Washington DC. It is usually held between late July and early August. The event includes a keynote from an important person of interest to Roblox developers (i.e., one of the founders).

The company continued to grow after adding more games, more ways to interact with other players, and updates to their backend engine. In 2021, the company launched an official website for users to store their games on the website's database and manage their avatar. In 2021, they also launched a virtual currency system called "Robux". These features allowed them to attract a large amount of players to the website at an early stage.
